Medical Procedures

PLEASE READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS THOROUGHLY, EVEN IF YOU ARE NOT DROPPING OFF MEDICATIONS AT CAMP.

Medications:

To ensure the highest level of safety for all campers and staff, all medications (both prescription and over the counter) must be in their original pharmacy-labeled containers and submitted to our Health Care Staff at check-in. Due to the increase in camper registrations and our commitment to providing safe, consistent care, we now require a prescriber's order for every medication your child will need while at camp. Prescribers are already accustomed to providing these orders in clinical settings. They may either complete our camp-specific form (available through your online account) or submit their own standard order. Most pediatricians operate through online patient portals, which is typically the quickest and easiest way to request and upload these orders.

Please note: If our nursing staff does not have a prescriber's order for each specific medication, they are not permitted to administer it, including routine medications your child may take at home. We recognize that this may require additional preparation on your part, and we are committed to making the process as smooth as possible. For campers with routine medications, either over the counter or prescription, we strongly recommend contacting your pharmacy and seeing if they offer daily dose packaging. In the case of a serious medical condition, there may be occasions where a camper may keep medication with them (Epipen, insulin, etc.).

Stock Medications at Camp:

Common over-the-counter medications, such as acetaminophen (Tylenol) and cetirizine (Zyrtec), are available through the Black Rock Health Care Center. These medications are reviewed and ordered each season by our camp physician. If your camper presents with a need for any of these medications, our camp nurse will supply and administer them in accordance with our physician's guidance.

Before Arrival:

Our nurses will be trained to check for head lice if needed, but please check your child for lice before bringing them to camp. Please watch the following YouTube video and follow the instructions to perform a lice check. Complete within a week of your child's arrival date.

Thank you for your partnership in keeping our camp community healthy and safe.

Cabinmate Requests:

On your registration form, you may request to be with one friend. However, we reserve the right to split up cabinmate requests without prior notification and we will not be able to honor specific cabin or counselor requests. Cabinmates MUST be a mutual request from both campers, be independently registered, close in age, and not siblings. We strive to honor your requests, but we cannot guarantee that we will be able to accommodate them. Cabin assignments are permanent on registration day and will not be changed.

Homesickness:

You will be notified and kept up to date if your child is more than just a little homesick, but we highly recommend that parents allow our staff to handle it. Our counselors are highly trained and well equipped to help campers overcome homesickness. We strive to provide campers with a safe space to work through their hesitations and fears of being away from home, and fully believe that working through difficulties can be very impactful. For more information, please download "Tips for Parents to Help Prevent Homesickness" on our website under "CAMPS - Overnight Camp Info."

Birthdays at Camp:

We love celebrating camper birthdays at camp! If your child's birthday falls within their camp session, we want to help make it special. All summer camp staff and fellow campers will sing to your camper at lunchtime on their birthday. If you would like to send a birthday note to your camper, please see the next page for information on sending letters/emails.

Lost and Found:

Please mark personal items and clothing with camper's initials in order to help us reduce the amount of lost & found. We will attempt to reconnect lost items with their owners but we are ultimately not responsible for any personal items left at camp. Please contact the camp office if you believe an item may have been left at camp. Lost & found items will be kept at camp for 30 days after the last camp session ends. After that time, any unclaimed items will be donated.

CONTACTING YOUR CAMPER

Visitors/Phone Calls/Mail:

Black Rock Retreat does not allow campers to have visitors or make/receive phone calls from a parent or anyone else while at camp unless there is an emergency. If an emergency or difficulties with your child arise at camp, please be assured that the Summer Camp Director will be in communication with you. Summer camp is a chance to unplug, connect with those around us, and hear from God. Cell phones can be a distraction and cause campers to disengage from people and activities. Therefore, campers will not be permitted to have cell phones or any mobile device at camp. If a phone is found at camp, it will be taken and kept in the camp office until the end of the week.

Letters are a great way to communicate with your camper while they are here!

Please address letters to:

Camper Name & Cabin
Black Rock Retreat
1345 Kirkwood Pike
Quarryville, PA 17566

You may also send an email to your camper!
We will distribute them once a day.

campermail@brr.org

Subject Line: Camper Full Name & Cabin

For all campers' safety, please do not send any "care packages" to your camper while they are at camp. Any packages other than letters will be returned, unopened, to the sender and there will be a shipping charge.

Please note: campers will not have access to email, but they may send letters home in response.

Early Departures:

All early departures must be communicated at registration. At the time of early pick-up, your child will meet you along with a staff member in front of the Administrative Office (first building on the left).

Late Departures:

Please be prompt in picking up your child during the specified hour, as we are not set up to provide supervision after the close of the program. We do charge a late fee of $5 per every 15 minutes past the pickup time.

Dress Code:

Black Rock Retreat does not intend to make judgments on what is morally right or wrong to wear, but we do believe that a certain standard of modesty should be upheld in the camp setting. Therefore, the following rules will be enforced, and any camper whose attire is not satisfactory will be asked to change.

1. Clothing worn at camp should not be too short, tight, or revealing. Low cut neck lines, see-through styles, spaghetti straps, yoga pants/tights, and fashion that exposes midriffs or undergarments are not permitted. White tank-top undershirts for guys are not to be worn alone, nor shirts with large holes. Guys may not wear cut off tank tops.
2. Shorts must be at least mid-thigh when standing. Pants or shorts with writing on the backside are not acceptable. Pants that are see-through are not to be worn alone. "Soffe" shorts or similar styles should be avoided.
3. Tank tops that do not completely cover undergarments may not be worn alone (ex. some racerback styles and styles worn with open backs or cutouts). Guys are prohibited from going shirtless except when at the lake or pool.
4. Swimming attire: modest one piece for girls that does not expose midriffs, cleavage, or large portion of the back. A tankini is acceptable. If only a two-piece bathing suit is brought, it must be worn with a dark t-shirt over top. Guys are not permitted to wear Speedos.
5. Clothing that promotes drugs, alcohol, smoking and tobacco use, sex, violence, death (i.e. skulls), foul language, or questionable logos are not to be worn.

Food & Drink:

To protect campers with potential allergies, any food/drink items brought to camp must be turned into the Snack Shop and the camper may eat it during Snack Shop times only. To prevent pests, food/drink items will not be permitted in the cabins. Chewing gum is not permitted on camp grounds.

Black Rock Retreat - General Camp Policies

Bullying:

Harassing, hazing, instigating, name-calling, put-downs, physical aggression, gossiping, or any other form of emotional, physical, or sexual bullying is strictly prohibited and completely intolerable at Black Rock Retreat. Our staff is vigilant in stopping bullying and protecting campers. Campers will be disciplined and their parents will be notified if their child is engaged in this type of behavior. Black Rock has a no tolerance policy for physical abuse. If any campers get into a physical altercation or harm another camper they will have to be sent home immediately.

Discipline Policy:

Black Rock Retreat is committed to discipline that first seeks to reconcile, challenge, and help each camper grow through their mistakes. Consequences are a part of that process. Any camper that breaks policy or chooses to not follow the instructions of Black Rock Retreat Staff will receive a strike and/or a consequence that fits the offense. Black Rock has a no-tolerance policy for physical abuse, and any camper that gets into a physical altercation or harms another camper or staff will have to be sent home immediately.

Strike 1: Warning, Camper will be pulled aside and talked with individually with their counselor to try and determine the cause of the offense.

Strike 2: Camper may be asked to sit out of an activity (such as a game, free time option, snack shop, etc.) with their counselor to further discuss the cause of the offense and create an action plan moving forward. Higher leadership will be notified and may be present for this conversation.

Strike 3: Camper calls home with counselor and leadership staff. Summer Camp Director may be present for this conversation.

Strike 4: Camper is dismissed from camp, BRR staff will communicate with parents/guardians to schedule a pick-up time.
